The Tregaron Conservancy is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit founded in 2006. The mission of the Tregaron Conservancy is to steward and maintain its 13-acre historic landscape for all to enjoy. The Conservancy is dedicated to renewing the landscape sustainably, to ensuring a healthy plant and wildlife habitat, and to educating and inspiring our visitors. To learn more, visit Tregaron.org and follow @TregaronDC on social media.

Washington Performing Arts champions the arts as a unifying force. Through collaborations with artists, educators, community leaders, and institutional partners, we bring wide-ranging artistic programs to stages, schools, and neighborhoods throughout our nation’s capital and, with our virtual platform, share our work throughout the world. For more info, including tickets for our 2021/22 Season, visit WashingtonPerformingArts.org.

Mars Arts D.C. is Washington Performing Arts’s signature community engagement project. The product of a partnership between Washington Performing Arts, Jacqueline Badger Mars, and Mars, Incorporated, Mars Arts D.C. carries out its mission of presenting and elevating the dynamic vibrancy found in the local arts community and business economy through ever-growing artist engagement and long-term communal partnerships. For more info, please visit WashingtonPerformingArts.org/MarsArtsDC.

PARK RULES

Welcome to Tregaron! To ensure that everyone can enjoy their visit, Tregaron Conservancy has the following rules:

- Note that the trails are mulched, and some feature rustic stairways and stepping stones. The terrain features elevation changes and uneven areas. The park is not wheelchair-accessible. Visitors assume all risk of injury.
- Dogs must be leashed and under owner-control at all times.
- Please “leave no trace” and clean up after your pet.
- Bikes and motorized vehicles are not permitted.
- The landscape is fragile. Please be gentle on the land. Do not remove or attach anything to trees or other vegetation. Do not walk through garden beds or planted meadow areas. Walk only on turf and marked trails/footpaths and do not create new trails.
- The Washington International School maintains a campus adjacent to the Conservancy, at the Estate’s hilltop, that is closed to the public. There is no fence between the Conservancy and School property; please observe the School’s posted signs.

Mars Arts D.C. is a partnership of Mars, Incorporated and Washington Performing Arts, with support from Jacqueline Badger Mars.

This event was made possible through the generous support of the estate of Ms. Gwen Petitjean.

Explore the park.

Discover the music.

Immerse yourself in the experience.
A SUGGESTED
TREGARON UNPLUGGED
PATH

LOCATION
4–4:45pm
Award-winning classical guitarist Oscar Somersalo performs as a soloist and chamber musician in America and Europe. Somersalo’s repertoire encompasses great classics and innovative new compositions.

LOCATION
4–4:45pm
Brad Linde OUTSIDE is a saxophone, tuba, cello, and percussion quartet led by saxophonist, educator, bandleader, and D.C. impresario Brad Linde. Linde is the director of Jazz and Creative Music at Georgetown Day School and founder of the Bohemian Caverns Jazz Orchestra.

LOCATION
4–5pm
VeVe Marley is a Washington, D.C.-based singer/songwriter and guitarist whose music, which blends elements of folk, Afrobeat, R&B, and hip-hop, creates dreamy, soulful vibes while speaking on issues of identity, spirituality, love, family, and the Black experience.

LOCATION
4–5pm
Integriti Reeves is a dynamic vocal powerhouse whose “Modern Vintage” style exists at the crossroads of jazz music, embodying the past, present, and future of the genre.

LOCATION
4–5pm
VeVe Marley: see bio under “Location B” above.

LOCATION
4–5pm
The Sweater Set is a five-time Washington Area Music Award-winning folk duet consisting of singer songwriters Sara Curtin and Maureen Andary. The Sweater Set invites audiences into Curtin and Andary’s joyful friendship as they sing about loves lost and found.

LOCATION
5–6pm
Brad Linde OUTSIDE

LOCATION
5–6pm
Rikayyah is a dedicated drummer, percussionist, music producer, educator, healer, motivational speaker, and human resources professional. Join Rikayyah for a percussion-led sound healing and meditative experience.

LOCATION
5–6pm
The Sweater Set

LOCATION
5–6pm
Integriti Reeves: see bio under “Location C” above.

LOCATION
5–6pm
Rikayyah

LOCATION
5–6pm
Award-winning classical guitarist Oscar Somersalo: see bio under “Location B” above.