Organizational Position Description

Spring 2022

Position Title: Advancement Intern*

Multiple positions available; specialization in a specific area of Advancement possible.*

GENERAL INFORMATION: This volunteer internship program, geared toward undergraduates students, graduate students, and recent graduates, offers an educational opportunity to develop professional experience and knowledge in the area of education & community engagement at a performing arts non-profit. All volunteer interns who work for at least 15 hours per week for at least 12 weeks will be eligible to receive a stipend of $500.

This internship can be fully remote, in-person, or mostly remote with a few days in the office. If Washington Performing Arts' office status does not allow for in-person work at any point during the internship period, this internship will be fully remote. Regular hours during WPA's office hours will be established on an individual basis with each intern.

Spring internships run in concordance with typical university semesters - January to May. Start/end dates determined with interns according to their schedules and commitments.

Department: Advancement

Title of Immediate Supervisor: Manager of Advancement Operations & Analytics or Director of Individual Giving

About Washington Performing Arts:

One of the most established and honored performing arts institutions in America, Washington Performing Arts has engaged for more than half a century with artists, audiences, students, and civic life. The city is truly our stage: for decades, in venues ranging from concert halls and clubs to public parks, we have presented a tremendous range of artists and art forms, from the most distinguished symphony orchestras to both renowned and emerging artists in classical music, jazz, international genres, and more. We also have an ever-expanding artistic and educational presence on the internet, addressing the programming challenges of this time of pandemic while envisioning ongoing opportunities for online connection and community in a post-COVID world.

Washington Performing Arts deeply values its partnerships with local organizations and other arts institutions. Through events online and in myriad performance venues and neighborhoods, we engage international visiting artists in community programs and introduce local artists to wider audiences. We place a premium on establishing artists as a continuing presence in the lives of both young people and adults through residencies and education programs.
