Organizational Position Description

Spring 2023

Position Title: Advancement Intern*

Multiple positions available; specialization in a specific area of Advancement possible.*

GENERAL INFORMATION: This volunteer internship program, geared toward undergraduates students, graduate students, and recent graduates, offers an educational opportunity to develop professional experience and knowledge in the area of education & community engagement at a performing arts non-profit. All volunteer interns who work for at least 15 hours per week for at least 12 weeks will be eligible to receive a stipend of $500.

This internship may be fully in-person, mostly in-person with scheduled remote work days per week, or fully remote, based on intern preference and availability. In the Spring, preference is given to in-person schedules to accommodate Gala work. If the Washington Performing Arts office status does not allow for in-person work at any point during the internship period, this internship will be fully remote. Regular hours during our office hours will be established on an individual basis with each intern.

Spring internships run in concordance with typical university terms - January to May. Start/end dates determined with interns according to their schedules and commitments.

Department: Advancement

Title of Immediate Supervisor: Director of Individual Giving, Assistant Director of Advancement Resources, or Manager of Advancement Operations & Analytics

About Washington Performing Arts:

One of the most established and honored performing arts institutions in America, Washington Performing Arts has engaged for more than half a century with artists, audiences, students, and civic life. The city is truly our stage. For decades, in venues ranging from concert halls and clubs to public parks, Washington Performing Arts has presented a tremendous range of artists and art forms, from the most distinguished symphony orchestras to both renowned and emerging artists in classical music, jazz, culturally-specific genres, dance, and more. Additionally, the organization's gospel music programs have fostered a powerful sense of community in Washington, D.C. since [year].

Washington Performing Arts deeply values its partnerships with local organizations and other arts institutions, and places a premium on establishing artists as a continuing presence in the lives of both young people and adults through residencies and education programs. The signature community engagement initiative, Mars Arts DC, elevates the dynamic vibrancy found in the local arts community and business economy. Since 2020, Washington

Spring 2023

- Minimum of 15 hours per week required, 20 hours preferred; regular hours during WPA's office hours will be established with each intern on an individual basis.
- COVID-19 Vaccination Requirement: Washington Performing Arts values the safety of our employees and families, our patrons and visitors, artists and students, and the community at large. Therefore, effective October 15, 2021, we are requiring that all Washington Performing Arts staff (including contractors and vendors who interact in-person with the general public) must be vaccinated against COVID-19. The COVID-19 vaccines remain a critical tool for saving lives, reducing the severity of the illness in infected people, and stopping the spread of COVID-19. In support of these values, if you are selected for this internship, and your internship is not fully remote, you must be fully vaccinated against COVID-19 at the start of your internship. You must submit proof that you are fully vaccinated against COVID-19 to the Intern Coordinator on or before your start date as a condition of your internship. In the instance where vaccination is not medically advised or violates your sincerely held religious beliefs, you may ask for an accommodation to revise your internship to a fully remote internship. Accommodations will be granted depending on the essential duties and nature of the internship, and/ or do not cause Washington Performing Arts undue hardship. Additionally, Interns must follow any federal/state/local mandates (such as mandated mask wearing in public spaces) that may be in effect at the time of their internship, as well as any new policies or procedures enacted by Washington Performing Arts.

To apply, send a cover letter indicating internship(s) of interest, resume, and contact information for two professional references to interns@washingtonperformingarts.org.
