Organizational Position Description

Summer 2023

Position Title: Advancement Intern*

Multiple positions available; specialization in a specific area of Advancement possible.*

GENERAL INFORMATION: This volunteer internship program, geared toward undergraduates students, graduate students, and recent graduates, offers an educational opportunity to develop professional experience and knowledge in the area of advancement at a performing arts non-profit. All volunteer interns who work for at least 15 hours per week for at least 9 weeks will be eligible to receive a stipend of $500.

This internship may be fully in-person, mostly in-person with scheduled remote work days per week, or fully remote, based on intern preference and availability. If the Washington Performing Arts office status does not allow for in-person work at any point during the internship period, this internship will be fully remote. Regular hours during our office hours will be established on an individual basis with each intern.

Summer internships run in concordance with typical university summer terms - May to August. Start/end dates determined with interns according to their schedules and commitments.

Department: Advancement

Title of Immediate Supervisor: Director of Individual Giving, Assistant Director of Advancement Resources, or Manager of Advancement Operations & Analytics

About Washington Performing Arts:

One of the most established and honored performing arts institutions in America, Washington Performing Arts continues to build upon a distinguished history of serving artists, audiences, students, and civic life. The city is truly our stage: in venues ranging from concert halls and clubs to public parks, we present a tremendous range of artists and art forms, from the most distinguished symphony orchestras to both renowned and emerging artists in classical music, jazz, international genres, and dance.

Washington Performing Arts nourishes communities throughout the region by partnering with local organizations and other arts institutions, staging concerts and arts activities in the neighborhoods, involving internationally known main stage performers in community programs, and presenting locally based artists to a wider audience. We place a premium on establishing artists as a continuing presence in the lives of both young people and adults through sustained residencies and educational programs. Our achievements have been recognized with a National Medal of Arts and with two Mayor's Arts Awards from the DC Government. We embark upon our next half-century with the goals of expanding our commitment to excellence and rededicating ourselves to the motto of our founder, Patrick Hayes: "Everybody in, nobody out." in-person with the general public) must be vaccinated against COVID-19. The COVID-19 vaccines remain a critical tool for saving lives, reducing the severity of the illness in infected people, and stopping the spread of COVID-19. In support of these values, if you are selected for this internship, and your internship is not fully remote, you must be fully vaccinated against COVID-19 at the start of your internship. You must submit proof that you are fully vaccinated against COVID-19 to the Intern Coordinator on or before your start date as a condition of your internship. In the instance where vaccination is not medically advised or violates your sincerely held religious beliefs, you may ask for an accommodation to revise your internship to a fully remote internship. Accommodations will be granted depending on the essential duties and nature of the internship, and/ or do not cause Washington Performing Arts undue hardship. Additionally, Interns must follow any federal/state/local mandates (such as mandated mask wearing in public spaces) that may be in effect at the time of their internship, as well as any new policies or procedures enacted by Washington Performing Arts.

To apply, send a cover letter indicating internship(s) of interest, resume, and contact information for two professional references to interns@washingtonperformingarts.org.
