

WASHINGTON PERFORMING ARTS CHILDREN OF THE GOSPEL CHOIR
The 30th Anniversary Season

Vocal Auditions

Seeking vibrant young singers to join us for the 2023-24 Season!

- Take part in live concerts and more
- Build performance and ensemble skills with other singers from throughout the DMV
- Add your voice to a 30-year tradition

For the past 30 years, the Washington Performing Arts Children of the Gospel Choir (COTG) has been a destination ensemble for D.C. area students who seek dynamic vocal training and performance experience with renowned faculty and guest artists. COTG has performed at The White House, the Presidential Inaugural Prayer Services for President Barack Obama, the National Memorial Service for Nelson Mandela, and on NBC's Today.

Auditions for COTG consist of two rounds: a preliminary online screening through Submittable.com and a secondary in-person audition with COTG faculty.

Open to singers ages 9–18

Online Submissions Deadline: Rolling Admissions

In-Person Callback Auditions: Rolling Admissions

To start your online submission, scan the QR or visit
https://bit.ly/2324_COTG_AUD.

WASHINGTON
PERFORMING ARTS